The diagram shows a layout of five buildings (A, B, C, D, E) and an upper level. Buildings A and B are on the left, C and D are in the center, and E is on the right. Rooms are numbered in each building. Buildings C, D, and E have green outlines indicating they are climate-controlled. Loading/unloading areas are marked between buildings. A hitch installation area and rental office are located near Building A. A legend indicates that green outlines represent climate-controlled areas.
